SUMMER YOUTH ACTIVITIES

A DIFFERENT KIND OF SUMMER BUT STILL A DARN GOOD TIME!

AUGUST 24-30

ENJOY THESE FUN SUMMER ACTIVITIES! WHETHER ONLINE OR SOCIALLY DISTANCED OUTSIDE, KEEP THIS SUMMER ROLLING WITH DIFFERENT ACTIVITIES EVERY DAY OF THE WEEK!

CLICK ON THE UNDERLINED LINKS FOR EACH DAY'S ACTIVITY

MONDAY

AUGUST 24, 2020

Our friends across the pond with the United Kingdom's National Health Service offer free fitness classes from beginner to experienced. From aerobic exercises, to strength and resistance, to yoga and Pilates, there is a program for everyone!

TUESDAY

AUGUST 25, 2020

The Peabody Essex Museum in Salem, Massachusetts offers virtual tours for a number of their best exhibits in art and nature, fashion and design, as well as Asian exports.

The museum also offers fun ways to get creative at home with different crafting and art projects.

WEDNESDAY

AUGUST 26, 2020

National Geographic for Kids offers a number of fun activities. From learning about nature, to seeing animals in their natural habitat, their vast website has something for everyone!

THURSDAY

AUGUST 27, 2020

With the Do-It-Yourself Summer Camp, kids can learn a new skill anytime, anywhere, and for anything!

You can make your own slime, experiment with photography, become a music star, or try just about anything else, with endless fun activities to try out.

FRIDAY

AUGUST 28, 2020

Walk the streets of Boston this summer with a virtual 4k journey along the Freedom Trail. Pass along the trail's 16 famous landmarks and visit all the historic spots that sit right in our backyard