The MGH Chelsea Community Research Program & The MGH Institute of Health Professions invite you to a Spanish interdisciplinary health sciences panel discussion:

“NUESTRAS VOCES: JOURNEYS IN USING SPANISH IN CLINIC AND COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS”

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2024 | 12:00 - 1:00 PM

MGH Chelsea HealthCare Center, Eleanor Clark Conference Room (4th floor), 151 Everett Ave., Chelsea, MA

The event will occur in Spanish with live captioning in English available on Zoom for remote participants.

Nurse Practitioner Panelist

Claudia Guillen, DNP, AGPCNP

Claudia Guillen is presently dedicated to primary care, catering primarily to Spanish-speaking patients working at MGH Chelsea Health Center. With an extensive 15-year clinical background, she focuses on effecting positive change through healthful lifestyle practices, patient education, and promoting overall well-being. She leads group medical sessions aimed at symptom management and disease prevention, conducted in both Spanish and English.

Speech-Language Pathologist Panelist

Angela Ayre, MS, CCC-SLP

Angela Ayre is a licensed SLP and trained literacy specialist with over 20 years of experience in a variety of settings, including community-based adult literacy programs, outpatient hospital clinics, and private practices. She has expertise in connections between spoken and written language development, bilingualism/multilingualism, and the diagnosis and treatment of developmental language disorders, dyslexia, and disorders of written expression. Angela is an Instructor in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders at the MGH IHP.

Orthopedic Clinical Specialist Panelist

Noam Segal, PT, DPT

Noam has worked at the MGH in Community Health Center in Chelsea, MA since 2014 and has been a clinical instructor since 2015. He is a board-certified orthopedic clinical specialist and has 15 years of experience as a clinician. He is always passionate about clinical education, motivated to share his standards of care with students, interns and new therapists. In addition to his clinical practice, he is also a member of the Chelsea Community Research Committee and an adjunct faculty member at the MGH IHP DPT program.

Associate Professor of Nursing Panelist

Eleanor Pusey-Reid, DNP, RN, M.Ed.

Dr. Eleonor Pusey-Reid is a distinguished Associate Professor at the MGH IHP School of Nursing with a career spanning over three decades. She has actively championed justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion (JEDI) in the academic and clinical spheres. She served over four years on the Massachusetts Board of Registration in Nursing, representing prelicensure education, and co-chairs the School of Nursing JEDI Collaborative.

Assistant Professor of Speech-Language Pathology Moderator

Mirza Lugo-Neris, PhD, CCC-SLP

Mirza Lugo-Neris is a Spanish-English bilingual SLP licensed in both Puerto Rico and Texas. She has 17 years of experience in working across a variety of pediatric clinical and educational settings, establishing clinical partnerships with families, and teaching and supervising undergraduate and graduate students. She investigates assessment and treatment practices with Spanish-English bilingual children who have developmental language disorders. She is currently an Assistant Professor at the MGH Institute of Health Professions.
