

Chelsea Youth Virtual Opportunities

Summer 2020

Arts

The Apollinaire Theatre in Chelsea offers script readings of plays, films, and much more! (some free/some $$)

<https://www.apollinairetheatre.com/>

Young Artists of America offers virtual classes in singing, dancing, or composing (some free/some $$)

<https://www.youngartistsamerica.org/virtual>

I Can Do That! Theatre offers youth classes in Improv, acting, theatre skills age 6-18! ($$)

<https://www.icandothattheatre.com/>

14th Street Y gives kids of all ages opportunities to learn about, anime, theatre, and much more (some free/some $$)

<https://www.14streety.org/virtual-14y/virtual-youth-programs/>

Sports

Boston Super Soccer Stars offer virtual training to not only keep kids active and moving but grow their skills on the field. ($$)

<http://boston.supersoccerstars.com/>

Take your talents from the pitch to your home with these virtual soccer camps. ($$)

<https://challenger.configio.com/search?range=6%2F15%2F2020&cid=868&m=0>

The National Academy of Athletics offers pre-recorded 5-day sports camps: baseball, basketball, football, soccer, volleyball, and martial arts. ($$)

<https://nationalacademyofathletics.com/virtual-sports-camps/>

Skyhawks Sports Academy gives younger kids a chance to learn the basics in sports like soccer, basketball, and general physed. (some free/some $$)

<https://www.skyhawks.com/>

A little of everything!

The City of Chelsea Cultural and Recreational Affairs Division has collected a number of resources fun for the whole family! Browse their list of arts, athletics, nature, and skill building resources that open the door to so many opportunities. (some free/some $$)

<https://recreation.chelseama.gov/node/4564>

Also here's their extensive FREE Summer Program guide! So much to choose from! Registration begins June 16th

https://recreation.chelseama.gov/sites/chelseamarec/files/uploads/chelsea\_program\_summer\_2020\_0.pdf

Zumix, based out of East Boston allows students to be active, have fun, and learn skills in anything from songwriting, creative media and technology, and community engagement. (free)

<https://www.zumix.org/sites/default/files/Summer%20Program%20Descriptions%202020%20%28updated%29.pdf>

It's just like summer camp! Kinda....here grades k-8 can keep kids engaged, having fun, and interacting with others in this free service that offers kids free weekly adventures in a number of fun activities. (free)

<https://campkinda.org/>

Parade

This list of over 45 resources for youth ranges from cooking, to athletics, to the arts, even dog sitting!
(some free/some $$)

<https://parade.com/1037196/jessicasager/virtual-summer-camps/>