

City of Chelsea
Tenacity Summer Tennis and Reading Program
Junior Staff (ages 15-18) Part time Positions
$13.50/Hour

The City of Chelsea is seeking part-time staff to assist with Tenacity - a free summer Tennis and Reading Program open to any Chelsea resident ages 6-10.

Tenacity's six (6) week program will be held Monday through Friday, July 6-August 13, from 9am-noon at Voke Park, 540 Washington Avenue, Chelsea. The tennis component of the program is games based and is designed to develop participants into functioning tennis players while emphasizing fun. The academic piece of the program is designed to keep children reading over their summer vacation so they maintain important literacy skills.

The City of Chelsea is proud to be the sponsor of Tenacity's Summer Tennis and Reading Program.

Responsibilities & Tasks

- A developmental role for 15-18 year-olds looking to gain experience working with children ages 6-10.
- Junior staff must report on-time and ready to work Monday - Friday from 9am -noon for six (6) weeks from July 6 until August 13 + a short training week in early July.
- Must be ready to collaborate, assist, and learn from the site leader on how to deliver tennis, fitness, and reading activities to young children.
- Be energetic and bring a "can-do" attitude to work, and be ready to work outdoors every day.
- Help organize supplies and equipment before and after program each day, including sanitizing equipment.
- Follow all COVID safety guidelines and protocols laid out by Tenacity and the City of Chelsea for summer programs and help leaders enforce these protocols with young children.
- Assist in various other tasks assigned by site leader.
- Interest in reading and/or children's literacy is a plus.
